

SPARKLING

FIZZ FIZZ FIZZ CAVA

Penedes, Spain

The words “bubbles” and “exclusive” do not only apply to Champagne. This smooth and soft Cava from the Penédes proves that!

JEAN DUMANGIN BLANC DES BLANC CHAMPAGNE

Champagne, France

Only 5% of all Champagnes are Blanc des Blanc (made from Chardonnay only). This exclusive Champagne tastes fresh, elegant and pleasantly soft.

ZOET

HAUSMANN RIVANER

Nahe, Germany

Rivaner is a grape variety that brings a lot of freshness in itself. Because the wine does not completely ferment, it gets its sweet taste.

LISTA NEGRA ROSÉ

4,50 24,50

Setubal, Portugal

With this fruity and dry rosé you imagine yourself directly on the Portuguese costa! Taste raspberry and white flowers.

FERRY LACOMBE MIRA ROSÉ

6,- 30,50

Provence, France

This salmon-colored blend of Grenache Blanc, Grenache Noir and Caladoc is named after the star "Mira". Is it arrogance to name a rosé after a star? Certainly not! This rosé can compete with the best rosés with star allure from Provence!

ROOD
TIERRA ALEGRE TEMPRANILLO

4,50 24,50

Tierra Castilla, Spain

Tempranillo is the pride of Spain. The ripe fruit and light spiciness make it very popular worldwide. This organic wine tastes like dark, juicy fruit and vanilla.

EL BOHEMIO PINOT NOIR

5,- 27,50

Itata Valley, Chili

Pinot Noir is probably the most prestigious grape in the world. This is due to the fantastically scented, silky wines it produces. Taste earthy and smoky notes, spicy red fruits and berries.

GORU EL TINTO

5,50 30,-

Jumilla, Spain

The Goru comes from vineyards in Jumilla, below Valencia. The Syrah, Monastrell and Petit Verdot grapes provide a powerful wine with pepper, soft fruit and a rich finish.
